CE

The biotech company ZandCell LLC has launched a fast, reliable and affordable COVID-19 saliva based rapid antigen test kit. With high accuracy the kit tests to qualitatively detect severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2). The test delivers results within minutes and infection is determined through an easy saliva sample. Thanks to hypersensitive colloidal gold the performance is stable and free from environmental and experimental conditions. State-of-the-art manufacturing facilities in Sweden guarantee a secured supply chain and fast deliver throughout Europe.
